In the US in 2019, men's salaries are 21% more than women's. At our current rate of progress, it will take 202 years to close the global economic gender gap. However, if we closed the wage and participation gaps it would add $28 trillion to the global economy by 2025. Join the dancers of "God is a Woman" as we use movement to celebrate women's strength, power, and determination to remedy these alarming statistics.

RNP - YBN Cordae ft. Anderson .Paak
How You Want It? - Teyana Taylor
Juice - Chris Brown

Sometimes we get caught up on how we look rather than how we feel when we dance. While challenging myself in the creative process of choreographing, I wanted to remind myself and others of why we love to dance. I wanted to create a space where each dancer could bring in their own ~ * s p i c e * ~ to my choreography, and where we could all just enjoy ourselves and not take ourselves too seriously. I thank all my dancers for doing just that, and for all the people that encouraged me to choreograph for DS this semester :)

ASA DANCE

Look At Me Now - Chris Brown ft. Lil Wayne, Busta Rhymes

Show Me Love (Skrillex Remix) - Hundred Waters ft. Chance the Rapper, Moses Sumney, Robin Hannibal

ASA Dance is back again, and this semester we decided to dedicate our piece to the Asian American experience and the adversities we faced growing up. To the times we were ridiculed for the lunches we brought to school, but now can happily go to any Asian restaurant and say “Let’s Eat!”, or when we constantly bickered with our parents and begged, “Show Me Love!” only to later find that they did in their own ways, but we were just too naive to understand. Today we say Look at Me Now as we show how proud we are of our roots, and we hope that you all enjoy and encourage you to never be embarrassed about where you come from!
